The image displays a large grid of 100 hand gestures arranged in a 10x10 pattern. Each gesture is represented by a stylized drawing of a hand. The gestures vary in shape, with some pointing fingers, some forming loops or circles, and others being more open or closed. The grid is color-coded into four distinct sections: a red section in the top right corner, a green section below it, a black section to the left of the green, and a large white section covering the bottom half of the grid. The red and green sections contain approximately 10 gestures each, while the black and white sections contain about 20 gestures each. The overall layout is a clean, organized grid against a plain white background.

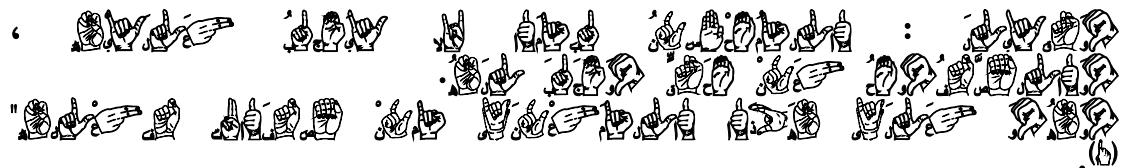

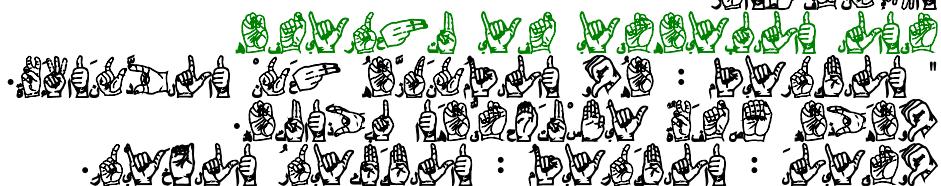

A decorative border composed of a repeating pattern of hand gestures. The gestures include thumbs up, peace signs, and other various hand shapes. The border is made of black outlines on a white background.
