INTRODUCTION

Verily all praise is for Allah, we praise Him, seek His help and forgiveness, and we seek refuge in Allah from the evil of ourselves and from the sinfulness of our actions. Whosoever Allah guides, then none can misguide him, and whosoever Allah misguides, there can be no guide for him. I testify that there is no deity except Allah alone and I testify that Muḥammad is His servant and messenger.

“O you who have believed, fear Allah as He should be feared and do not die except as Muslims (in submission to Him)” Surat ‘Āli ‘Imrān (Family of ‘Imrān), verse 102.

“O mankind, fear your Lord, who created you from one soul and created from it its mate and dispersed from both of them many men and women. And fear Allah, through whom you ask one another, and the wombs. Indeed Allah is ever, over you, an Observer.” Surat An-Nisā’ (The Women), verse 1.
“O you who have believed, fear Allah and speak words of appropriate justice. He will then amend for you your deeds and forgive you your sins. And whoever obeys Allah and His Messenger has certainly gained a signal victory” Surat Al-'Ahzāb (The Combined Forces), verses 70 – 71.

Certainly the best of speeches is the Book of Allah and the finest guidance is the guidance of Muḥammad, may the peace and blessings of Allah be upon him. The most evil affair is a newly invented matter in religion and every newly invented matter is innovation (bidʿa), and every innovation is misguidance and all misguidance is in the Hellfire.

In one of the most desolate and arid places of Earth, in a rocky and stony land surrounded everywhere by the desert, with no plantations and no water; a place that lacks everything that gives life and prosperity, Allah chose Mecca The Honoured to become His safe Sanctuary, the heart and capital of the World, the unique city on the face of the planet that acquired sanctity by a divine order and a Lordly decree to shine radiantly over all cities.

The will of Allah Most High chose for Mecca this barren land in spite of His power, exalted be He, to make it a gorgeous verdant garden with luxuriant vegetation, full of flowers, warbling birds and babbling streams. He made it a sign of His power and a miracle; Allah Most High said:

أوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَا جَعَلْتُ الْجَاهِلِيَّةَ هَارِمًا عَامِنًا وَيَتَحَّطَّفُ النَّاسُ مِنْ حَوْلِهِمْ

“Have they not seen that We made (Mecca) a safe Sanctuary, while people are being taken away all around them?” Surat al-' Ankabūt (The Spider): 67.

And Allah Most High said:
“Have We not established for them a safe Sanctuary to which are brought the fruits of all things as provision from Us?” Surat Al-Qaṣaṣ (The Stories): 57.

Mecca the Honoured is particular compared to all other cities on the planet; cities and lands are favoured, according to human habits, for their resources and the wealth Allah bestowed upon them; some lands are preferred thanks to their mineral resources, some for their oil resources, other for their agriculture or water or any other material perishable assets.

But the criterion of differentiation of the Holy Land that singles it out is not a material one: religion is the basis of its distinction from all other lands and countries; it is the Holy Land of Allah, on it lies the Honourable Ka’ba, the sacred and glorified places, it is the qibla (direction) of the Muslims, in it takes place the greatest gathering of people on Earth to worship Allah Most High by accomplishing the Ḥajj and ‘Umra.

For this reason, Mecca holds a great and elevated status in the hearts of all the Muslims of the planet; a station stemming from this religious eminence bestowed by Allah. There is no doubt that what distinguishes a nation from another, what raises one above others is the scale of the exaltation of its sanctity, its bond to its History, its persistence in sticking to its authenticity and its development from its past towards its present and future. This is why ancient and modern Muslims have granted the Holy Land a great interest, dedicated to it volumes and devoted to it their times.

It is with my deep love for the Holy Land and my firm belief in the greatness of our religion and our convictions that I decided to write this book which I entitled “The Holy Land: Description – Names – Virtues – Specificities – Rules” for it to become a comprehensive reference; hoping it to be pleasant to read; I gathered in it what is related to the Holy Land as descriptions, virtues, specificities and rules linked to it. This book came into being with the help of Allah Most High, combining the splendour of sight, ease of reading and the charm of writing on this great and deep subject.
Our Lord creates what He wills and He chooses:

It is according to the perfection of His power, His wisdom and knowledge that Allah Most High prefers, distinguishes, specifies and chooses between His creatures. Allah has His preference between angels, prophets and human beings. He preferred some periods of times above others as He preferred some places above others; for instance He preferred the Firdaws amongst all the Heavens.

If you gaze at Creation you would see this divine choice and grant indicating His lordliness, exalted be He, His oneness and the perfection of His wisdom, knowledge and power; He is Allah, there is no god but Him and no one creates as He creates, no one chooses as He chooses, no one directs all things as He does. These choices and arrangements noticed in this World are amongst the greatest signs of His lordliness and the most obvious evidence of His oneness and of the characteristics of His perfection and the sincerity of His messengers.¹

No one creates as He creates, no one chooses as He chooses and no one directs all things as He does; Allah Most High said:

وَرَبُّكَ يَحْلِقُ مَا يَشَاءُ وَيَخْتَارُ

“And your Lord creates what He wills and He chooses” Surat Al-Qaṣaṣ (The Stories): 68.

Amongst the places that received this grace and greatness is Mecca the Honoured, the land of the Revelation and the cradle of the message where lays a house for which the hearts and souls are craving, is it not the Ancient House.²

Amongst the signs of its preference: Allah Most High informed us that Mecca is the Mother of Cities; all the cities are linked to it, they are its followers, it is their central axis and origin. Therefore, there cannot be any city equivalent to it; it is similar to the Fāṭiha: the Prophet (s) said of it that it was the Mother of the Qur’ān; this is why it is second to none in all the divine books.³

³ Zād al-maʿād, (49 – 50/1).
Importance of the subject and method:

The importance of this book lies in its own nature: a comprehensive study of the Holy Land and what is relevant as history, virtues, specificities and rules based on sharia-authenticated sources approved by the standards of well-versed and eminent people in jurisprudence; regardless of what became famous concerning the Holy Land such as false ḥadīths, false events or false information linked to it. Therefore, the method of this book is based on the method of the people of ḥadīth whereas authenticity of information is the fundamental condition for being quoted in the text. This is the guideline followed, based on the prevailing opinion in Islamic jurisprudence: presenting evidence from the Qurʾān and the Sunna, sometimes with the addition of companions’ statements and reasoning, evidence of the consensus if there is one, and quoting rules, wisdoms and benefits derived from said evidence. I avoided delving into too many details (except for important matters) or mentioning contradictions in order to ward off boredom, to make prevailing opinions more clear in the minds and to make the book easier and more comfortable for the dear reader.

This book is intended for all categories of Muslims ranging from the diligent student assiduous in the quest of knowledge to the uninitiated reader considering the easiness of the method, the fluency of the style and the distance taken from blameworthy controversy or sterile arguments.

The Construction Of The Ka‘ba Before The Dawn Of Islam

Divergence of the ulama on the construction of the Ka‘ba:

The ulama differed on defining who first built the Ka‘ba and on how many times it was rebuilt before the dawn of Islam. Among the evidence put forward by commentators, reporters of ḥadīths and historians concerning the construction of the Ka‘ba, there are irrefutable proofs, which are accepted, and others which are not. The evidence concerns matters coming from the Unseen that happened before the Prophet (s) was sent. These proofs are therefore coming from revelations, in this regard, there is no place left for interpretations⁴.

Summary of the constructors of the Ka‘ba before the dawn of Islam⁵:

1. The angels, peace be upon them.
2. Adam (p).
4. Ibrāhīm (p).

⁴ See: Bayt Allah al-ḥarām al-Ka‘ba, p. 73.
⁵ See: Bayt Allah al-ḥarām al-Ka‘ba, Muḥammad Ibn ʿAbd Allah Thābit Shabbāla p. 80.
5. The Amaliqa (al-ʿamāliqa or al-ʿamāliq). 6
7. Quṣay ibn Kilāb7.
8. ʿAbd al-Muţṭalib. 8
9. Quraysh.

The prevailing opinion concerning the construction of the Kaʿba before the dawn of Islam:

It has been established that the Kaʿba was built only four times before Islam appeared9 in the following order:

1. The construction realized by Ibrāhīm (p) which was the first construction of the Honourable Kaʿba.
2. The construction realized by the Amaliqa.
3. The construction realized by Jurhum.
4. The construction realized by the Quraysh tribe.

The opinion concerning the building of the Kaʿba by the angels, peace be upon them, is not backed by true evidence10, neither the construction undertaken by Adam (p) and no one can prove it.11 The same is true for Shīth Ibn Adam12 and Quṣay Ibn Kilāb; even if it has been reported by some historians, apart from being quoted13. There is no evidence either for the construction of the Kaʿba by ʿAbd al-Muţṭalib.14

Scientific investigation about who did actually build the Kaʿba:

Firstly: The construction of Ibrāhīm (p).

Reason for the construction:

---

6 Related to their grandfather ʿImlīq Ibn Lāūdīh Ibn Sām Ibn Noah, they were inhabitants of the Yemen. See al-Kāmil, Ibn al-Athīr (61/1).
7 The 4th grandfather of the Prophet (s), his name was Zayd. See: Sīra Ibn Isḥāq (60/2).
8 The grandfather of the Prophet (S), his name was Shayba al-ḥamd. See: Sīra Ibn Isḥāq (43/1).
9 See: Bayt Allah al-harām al-Kaʿba, p. 103.
10 Ibid p. 83.
11 Ibid p. 90.
12 Ibid p. 91.
13 Ibid p. 97.
14 Ibid p. 98.
Ibrāhīm (p) built the Honourable Kaʿba out of stones following the order of Allah Most High. He gave it a height of 4.5 metres (9 cubits), a length at the eastern side of 16 metres (32 cubits) and 15.5 metres (31 cubits) for the western wall; the southern wall was 10 metres (20 cubits) and the northern wall 11 metres (22 cubits). He did not put a roof on the Kaʿba but put two openings without doors on the level of the ground. Jibrīl (p) brought down the Black Stone and Ibrāhīm (p) put it in its place.\(^{15}\)

If we study the texts, the Qurʿān and the Sunna, we find that they point out that Ibrāhīm (p) is the first one who actually built the Honourable Kaʿba\(^{16}\).

Evidence:

1. The word of Allah Most High:

\text{وَإِذْ يَرْفَعُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ الْقُوَاعِدَ مِنَ الْبَيْتِ وَاسْتَعْمَعِلُ}

“And (mention) when Ibrāhīm was raising the foundations of the House and with him Ismāʿīl” Surat al-Baqara – The Cow: 127.

Ibn Kathīr (m) said: The apparent meaning of the Qurʿān states that Ibrāhīm (p) is the very first builder of the Kaʿba, the first who raised its foundations. His land was already glorified before this and honoured for all ages and all times, a fact that Ibrāhīm was well aware of.\(^{17}\)

2. The word of Allah Most High:

\text{وَإِذْ بَرَأَنَا لِإِبْرَاهِيمَ مَكَانَ الْبَيْتِ}

“And when We designated for Ibrāhīm the site of the House” Surat al-Ḥajj – The Pilgrimage: 26.

Ibn Kathīr said: There is no true irrefutable evidence attributed to the Prophet (s) that the House was built before al-Khalīl (p) (Allah’s friend, Ibrāhīm), and anyone who pretends the opposite using the verse “the site of the House” has no obvious nor evident clue in doing so; because the verse is not about the construction. What is meant here is that the spot has been chosen in the science of Allah; it has been established by His power and hallowed by the prophets since the age of Adam until the time of Ibrāhīm, peace be upon them.18

3. The words of Ibrāhīm (p) in a ḥadīth elevated and attributed to the Prophet (s) narrated by Ibn ʿAbbās (r2), in testimony of this: Certainly, Allah ordered me to build here a House, and He designated a raised hillock. There, they both raised the foundations of the House, Ismāʿīl bore the stones and Ibrāhīm built, until the construction was heightened. Then Ismāʿīl laid a stone for his father (as a foothold), Ibrāhīm stood on it for building and Ismāʿīl was carrying to him the stones, and both of them said: Our Lord, accept this from us. Indeed You are the Hearing, the Knowing.19

Secondly and thirdly: The construction by the Amaliqa and the Jurhum tribe:

This construction has been reported by many authenticated accounts and stories, including:

1. ʿAlī Ibn Abī Ṭālib (r) narrated: The ravages of time destroyed it, then the Amaliqa rebuilt it, then the ravages of time destroyed it and the Jurhum tribe rebuilt it, after which the ravages of time destroyed it again and the Quraysh rebuilt it.20

2. ʿAlī Ibn Abī Ṭālib (r) also narrated, after having mentioned the construction of Ibrāhīm (p): Then it came to destruction and the Amaliqa rebuilt it, then it came to destruction and a tribe from

Jurhum rebuilt it, then it came to destruction and the Quraysh rebuilt it.\(^{21}\)

This matter is not open to debate or interpretation as it is impossible for `Alî (r) to speak like this unless he heard it from the Messenger of Allah (s), in this regard, this speech is elevated and attributed to the Prophet (s).

Fourthly: The construction of Quraysh:

Reason for the construction:

History books mentioned that once a woman came with a brand of fire to burn the Kaʿba; a spark flew out of her embers and the Kiswa (cloth that covers the Kaʿba) caught fire. Then came a great flood that entered the Kaʿba and cracked its walls. The Quraysh took fright and decided to rebuild the Honourable Kaʿba. These events took place five years before the start of the mission of the Prophet (s). The Quraysh imposed the condition that no money coming from immoral earnings would be accepted; but they ran out of clean money for the completion of the building. Therefore the Quraysh reduced by six cubits and a span (3.23 metres) or about three metres and a quarter, the wall of the Ḥijr\(^{22}\) and set up a low circular wall around it for the people to circumambulate behind it. They also made a few changes such as giving the Kaʿba more height: it reached 18 cubits (9 metres) and they gave it a roof for the first time; they added to it a gutter made of wood, they closed the western door and elevated the eastern door higher than the ground in order to decide who would enter the Kaʿba or not. The Messenger of Allah (s) took part in this construction, he bore stones with them.

When the work was completed, the Quraysh wanted to fix the Black Stone and a serious conflict broke out amongst them; each tribe fighting for the privilege of putting the Black Stone in its place. They agreed that the first person entering the sanctuary would settle the disagreement between them. This person was the Prophet (s). He took the Stone, put it on a cloth and then asked all the tribes to take a part of the cloth and to lift it, after which he put the Stone in its place. With his lofty wisdom, \(^{21}\) Reported by al-Azraqi in Akhbār Makka (62/1).

the Prophet (s) resolved a conflict that almost destroyed their unity and would have lead to many deaths.23

This construction has been reported by many authenticated accounts and stories, including:

1. ʿĀʾisha (rh) narrated: The Messenger of Allah (s) told me: Had your people not been unbelievers in the recent past (had they not quite recently accepted Islam), I would have demolished the Kaʿba and would have rebuilt it on the foundations laid by Ibrāhīm; for when the Quraysh had built the Kaʿba, they reduced its area, and I would also have built a door in the rear24,25

2. ʿĀʾisha (rh) also narrated that the Prophet (s) told her: Don't you see that when your people built the Kaʿba, they did not build it on all the foundations laid by Ibrāhīm?26

3. The participation of the Prophet (s) in this building is also an established fact. Jābir Ibn ʿAbd Allah (r2) said: When the Kaʿba was being built, the Prophet (s) and ʿAbbās went to carry stones. Al-ʿAbbās said to the Prophet (s): Take off your waist sheet and put it on your neck. When the Prophet took it off, he fell on the ground with his eyes open towards the sky and said: Give me my waist sheet. And he covered himself with it.27

Ibn Kathīr (m) said: It is known that when this happened, the age of the Prophet (s) was 35 years old, according to the statement of Muḥammad Ibn Ishāq (m).28

On basis of this authentic evidence, it appears that the construction of the Kaʿba by the Quraysh is true and that it took place five years before the mission of the Prophet (s) started.

23 See: Tārīkh al-Kaʿba al-muʿaẓẓama, p. 87-94; Makka al-mukarrama tārīkh wa maʿālim p. 44.
24 In another narration, the Prophet (s) explained: I would have given it two doors, one facing the east and the other one to the west. Reported by Muslim (969/2) H.1333. In another version: I would also have constructed a door for the people to enter, and a door for their exit. Reported by Muslim (970/2), H. 1333. See: Sharḥ an-Nawawī ʿalā šaḥīḥ Muslim, (89/9).
25 Reported by Muslim (968/2), H. 1333.
26 Reported by al-Bukhārī (573/2), H. 1506, Muslim (969/2), H. 1333.
27 Reported by al-Bukhārī (573/2), H. 1505.
28 Al-Bidāya wa an-Nihāya, (300/2).
It has been established that the Ka‘ba was built only three times after Islam appeared, as follows:

3. The construction of the Sultan Murād Khan.

Firstly: The construction of ‘Abd Allah Ibn Zubayr (r2):

Reason for the construction:

In 64 of the Hegira, Yazīd Ibn Mu‘awiya launched an army from the Levant, under the orders of al-Ḥuṣayn Ibn Namīr to fight ‘Abd Allah Ibn Zubayr (r2). He besieged Mecca and bombarded it by catapult. The Ka‘ba was damaged; it caught fire and its walls were weakened. But after 17 days of siege, Yazīd died and the army withdrew to the Levant without having entered Mecca. The command remained in the hands of ‘Abd Allah Ibn Zubayr (r2) in Mecca who decided to rebuild the Ka‘ba on the basis of the foundations laid by Ibrāhīm (p), inspired by the desire of the Prophet (s). He added to it what the Quraysh had cut off (6 cubits and a span), he gave it two doors on the level of the ground, one oriented to the East and the other to the West, and he raised its height to 27 cubits, or 13.5 metres.29

This construction has been reported by many authenticated accounts and stories, including:

1. ‘Aţā’ (m) related: The House was burnt down during the time of Yazīd Ibn Mu‘āwiya when the people of the Levant fought in Mecca. And it happened to it (the Ka‘ba) what happened. Ibn Zubayr (r2) left it in the same state until the people came in the season of Ḥajj. The idea was that he wanted to exhort them or incite them to war30 against the people of the Levant. When the people had arrived, he said to them: O people, advise me about the Ka‘ba. Should I demolish it and then rebuild it from its very foundations, or should I repair whatever has been damaged?

Ibn ‘Abbās (r2) said: An idea has occurred to me31 according to which I think that you should only repair the portion which has been damaged, leave the House in that very state in which people embraced Islam and leave those very stones in the same state and over which Allah's Messenger (s) had raised it.

Thereupon Ibn Zubayr (r2) said: If the house of anyone of you is burnt, he would not be contented until he had reconstructed it32. Then what about the House of your Lord? I would seek good advice from my Lord thrice and then I would make up my mind about this affair. After seeking good advice thrice, he made up his mind to demolish it. The people apprehended that calamity might fall from heaven on those persons who would be first to climb over the building for the purpose of demolishing it, till one ascended to the roof and threw down one of its stones. When the people saw no calamity befalling him, they followed him, demolished it until it was razed to the ground. Then Ibn

30 See: Sharḥ an-Nawawi ‘alā šahīḥ Muslim (92/9).
31 See: Ibid (92/9).
32 Or until he had made it new.
Zubayr erected pillars and hung curtains\textsuperscript{33} on them (in order to provide facilities to the people for observing religious rituals during the time of its construction).\textsuperscript{34}

2. Al-Bukhārī reported about the destruction and reconstruction of the Kaʿba by Ibn Zubayr (r2): ʿĀʾisha (rh) narrated that the Messenger of Allah (s) said to her: O ʿĀʾisha, were it not for the fact that your people have recently left Jāhiliya (pre-Islamic period of ignorance), I would have commanded that the House be knocked down, and I would have incorporated into it what was left out of it. I would have made its door level with the ground and I would have given it two doors, an eastern door and a western door. For they built it too small, and by doing this, it would have been built on the foundations of Ibrāhīm. This is what motivated Ibn Zubayr (r2) to knock it down.

Yazīd said\textsuperscript{35}: I saw Ibn Zubayr when he knocked it down, rebuilt it, and included part of the Ḥijr in it. And I saw the foundations of Ibrāhīm (p): stones like the humps of camels.\textsuperscript{36}

No contradiction between the two reasons:

It appears in the version narrated by Muslim that the reason for Ibn Zubayr building up the Kaʿba is the fire that broke out when the people of the Levant attacked Mecca; it became ramshackle.

In the version narrated by al-Bukhārī, the reason is different: it is the ḥadīth of the Prophet (s) only. There is no contradiction between the two versions. The ḥadīth was probably the reason, and the blaze that occurred at \textsuperscript{33} The reason for these pillars and curtains: to make it possible for the people at that time to know the place of the Kaʿba for their prayers. The curtains remained there until the construction was completed and visible to the people. See: Ibid (93/9).

\textsuperscript{34} Reported by Muslim (970/2), H. 1333.

\textsuperscript{35} We speak here about Yazīd Ibn Rumān al-Asadī, Abū Rūh al-Madanī, the freed slave of the family of Zubayr Ibn al-ʿawwām. See: Tahdhib al-kamāl, al-Māzī (122/32). Tārīkh al-İslām, adh-Dhahabī (502/7).

\textsuperscript{36} Reported by al-Bukhārī (574/2), H. 1508.
the time of Yazīd was a timely opportunity to put the ḥadīth into practice\textsuperscript{37}; or maybe the blaze was the cause and the ḥadīth was the justification on which Ibn Zubayr (r2) relied for destroying the Kaʿba, rebuilding it on the foundations of Ibrāhīm (p) and giving it two doors.

Al-Fāsī (m) said: Concerning the construction of ʿAbd Allah Ibn Zubayr (r2), it is an established and well-known fact. The reason is that the Kaʿba became tumbledown after bearing the brunt of stones thrown by catapult, when Ibn Zubayr (r2) was in Mecca under the persistent siege of Yazīd Ibn Muʿāwiya at the beginning of the year 64 of the Hegira.\textsuperscript{38}

Question: What was the best thing to do? Leave the Kaʿba as it was since the Quraysh? Or rebuild it on basis of the foundations laid by Ibrāhīm (p)?

This question has two aspects:\textsuperscript{39}

1. To avoid rebellion among the people and to collect enough money to pay for the cost of the reconstruction. Therefore, the priority in this case is the demolition of the Kaʿba and its reconstruction on the foundations laid by Ibrāhīm (p), as the Messenger of Allah (s) wanted it.

This is exactly what ʿAbd Allah Ibn Zubayr (r2) did when he said: I today have the means to spend and I entertain no fear of the people that they would protest against this change. So he added five cubits of area from the side of the Ḥijr to it. There appeared the old foundations upon which Ibrāhīm (p) had built the Kaʿba\textsuperscript{40} and the people saw that. It was upon these foundations that the wall was raised. The length of the Kaʿba was eighteen cubits after the addition was made to it (which was in its breadth), then naturally the length appeared to be smaller compared with its breadth. Ten cubits of area were also added to its length later. Two doors were also constructed, one of which was meant for entrance and the other one as an exit.\footnote{Reported by Muslim (971/2), H. 1333.}

2. The fear of sedition, even if means were available to spend for building. In this case, leaving the Ka’ba as it used to be was the priority, as the Prophet (s) refrained from rebuilding it on the foundations of Ibrāhīm (p) for this reason.

An-Nawawī (m) said about the explanation of the ḥadīth of ‘Ā’isha (rh) concerning the demolition and reconstruction of the Ka’ba: In this ḥadīth, there is a rule of law: if there is an opposition between the advantages and drawbacks, and if it is hard to choose between doing good and avoiding evil, priority is given to the most important; as the Prophet (s) said about the demolition and reconstruction of the Ka’ba on the foundations of Ibrāhīm (p) that it was a good point; but the wrong this implied was bigger, namely the fear of sedition of those who converted recently and who believed in the virtue of the Ka’ba; they thought that any change to it would be a serious problem, so the Prophet (s) did not do anything.\footnote{Sharḥ an-Nawawī ’alā saḥīḥ Muslim (89/9).}

The wish was again expressed by some Abbasid caliphs to restore the Ka’ba as did Ibn Zubayr (r2), since they were convinced this was only the desire of the Prophet (s), but the conditions did not allow this.\footnote{See:
Nabha fi tārīkh al-Ka’ba al-musharraf wa al-mashā’ir al-muqaddassat, Dr. Ḥasan Ibn Ṭabīb (264/4).}

It has been narrated that Hārūn ar-Rashīd told Mālik Ibn Anas that he wanted to destroy the construction of al-Ḥajjāj and to rebuild the Ka’ba as Ibn Zubayr did. Mālik Ibn Anas said to him: I beseech you, O Commander of the Faithful, not to make this House a playing field for the Kings; all of them want to raze it and rebuild it; but consequently its reverence will disappear from the hearts of the people.\footnote{Sharḥ saḥīḥ al-Bukhārī, Ibn Badr (264/4).}

If there was any advantage in the construction of the Ka’ba on the foundations of Ibrāhīm (p) it would have been in opposition to a bigger evil, namely a loss of reverence and making the Ka’ba a kind of game for the kings; this is what Imam Mālik (m) realized, so the Kaʾba remained as it used to be.

Secondly: The construction of al-Ḥajjāj Ibn Yūsuf:

Reason for the construction:

ʿAbd al-Malik Ibn Marwān sent a large army lead by al-Ḥajjāj Ibn Yūsuf ath-Thaqafi to Mecca. He conquered the city and killed Ibn Zubayr (r2). He restored the Kaʾba in 74 of the Hegira: he shut the western door, elevated the eastern door, knocked down the northern wall and cut 6 cubits and a span from the side of the Ḥijr and he did not change its height.45

The question that naturally comes to one's mind:

Was the political disagreement between ʿAbd Allah Ibn Zubayr and ʿAbd al-Malik Ibn Marwān the reason for the destruction of Ibn Zubayr's building? Or was it for another reason?

There are numerous stories about the construction of the Kaʾba by al-Ḥajjāj Ibn Yūsuf ath-Thaqafi under the command of ʿAbd al-Malik Ibn Marwān.

Among the stories related to this matter are the following:

1. ʿAţāʾ (m) reported: When Ibn Zubayr was killed, al-Ḥajjāj wrote to ʿAbd al-Malik Ibn Marwān informing him about it and telling him that Ibn Zubayr had built the Kaʾba on those very foundations which were laid by Ibrāhīm (p) and which reliable persons among the Meccans had seen. ʿAbd al-Malik wrote back to him, saying: We are not concerned with the wrong done by Ibn Zubayr46 in anything. Keep intact the addition made by him in the length and whatever he has added from the side of the Ḥijr, bring it back to its previous foundations, and wall up the door which he had opened. Thus 46 He wanted to insult him by saying this, and to reduce his deeds. In other words: We are innocent of the stain of Ibn Zubayr. See: Sharḥ an-Nawawīʾalā ṣaḥīḥ Muslim (94/9).

al-Ḥajjāj, at the behest of ‘Abd al-Malik, demolished that portion and restored its former structure.47

2. Abū Qaza’a (m) reported: While ‘Abd al-Malik Ibn Marwān was circumambulating the Ka’ba, he said: May Allah ruin Ibn Zubayr that he lies in attributing to the Mother of the Faithful, as he says: I heard her stating that Allah’s Messenger (s) had said: ‘Ā’isha, if your people had not been new converts to Islam, I would have demolished the House and would have added in it area from the Ḥijr for your people have reduced the area from its foundations. Al-Ḥārith Ibn ‘Abd Allah Ibn Abī Rabī’a said: Commander of the Faithful, don’t say that, for I heard the Mother of the Faithful saying this. Whereupon he said: If I had heard this before demolishing it, I would have left it in the state in which Ibn Zubayr had built it.48

3. ‘Abd Allah Ibn ‘Ubayd (m) reported: Al-Ḥārith Ibn ‘Abd Allah led a deputation to ‘Abd al-Malik Ibn Marwān during his caliphate. ‘Abd al-Malik said: I don’t think that Abū Khubayb (i.e. Ibn Zubayr) had heard from ‘Ā’isha (rh) about the intended wish of the Holy Prophet (s) in regard to the alteration of the Ka’ba. Al-Ḥārith said: Yes, I myself did hear that from her. He (‘Abd al-Malik) said: Well, tell me what you heard from her. He stated that she had said that Allah’s Messenger (s) remarked: Verily your people have reduced the area of the House from its original foundations, and if they had not recently abandoned polytheism (and embraced Islam) I would have reversed it to those foundations which they had left out of it. And if your people would take initiative after me in rebuilding it, then come along with me so that I should show you what they have left out of it. He showed her about seven cubits of area from the side of the Ḥijr (that they had separated). This is the ḥadīth of ‘Abd Allah Ibn ‘Ubayd.

Al-Walîd Ibn ‘Aţâ’ has, however, made this addition to it: Allah’s Messenger (s) said: I would have made two doors on the level of the ground facing the east and the west. Do you know why your people raised the level of its door (i.e. the door of the Ka’ba)? She said: No. He said: They did it out of vanity so that they might be in a position to grant admittance to him only whom they wished. When a person intended to get into it, they let him climb the stairs, and as he was about to enter, they pushed him and he fell down.

‘Abd al-Malik said to al-Ḥārith: Did you yourself hear her saying this? He said: Yes. He (al-Ḥārith) said that he (‘Abd al-Malik) scratched the ground with his staff for some time and then said: I wish I had left his (Ibn Zubayr’s) work there.

Ibn Zubayr (r2) was right:

It appears clearly from this statement that the construction of al-Ḥajjâj ath-Thaqafî was the execution of the orders of ‘Abd al-Malik Ibn Marwân, and that ‘Abd al-Malik Ibn Marwân did not know about the ḥadîth narrated by ‘Ā’isha (rh) concerning the position of the Prophet (s) about the Ka’ba, which was exactly the line of conduct followed by Ibn Zubayr (r2). ‘Abd al-Malik Ibn Marwân thought that the construction of Ibn Zubayr was a pure product of his own imagination or slander against the Mother of the Faithful ‘Ā’isha (rh). When he clearly understood that the narration of ‘Ā’isha was true, he regretted it and wished he had left the Ka’ba as he found it. What emerges from ‘Abd al-Malik Ibn Marwân’s regrets is that the political conflict with Ibn Zubayr was not the motive of his demolition of the Ka’ba; instead, the reason for doing so was ignorance of the ḥadîth of the Prophet (s) narrated by the Mother of the Faithful (rh), in addition to his willingness to honour and glorify the Ka’ba.

It emerges from this that Ibn Zubayr (r2) was right in the works he carried out on the Ka’ba.

Praise of the emirs and ulama towards the Kaʿba

Ibn Taymiya (m) confirmed and insisted on this matter when he said: All the princes and ulama who saw these events and were praising and glorifying the Kaʿba. Their deeds and opinions were what they thought was closer to the love and preference of Allah and his Prophet (s); none of them intended to insult the Kaʿba, and if someone says that one of the servants of Allah wanted to shell the Kaʿba with a catapult or to stain it with filth, he is a liar. This never happened, neither during the Jāhiliya nor after Islam, and those unbelievers who did not respect the Kaʿba, like the people of the Elephant or the Qarmatians, did not do such a thing. So what about Muslims who praised the Kaʿba? And even if we suppose – Allah forbids – that someone wants to dishonour the Kaʿba and is able to do so, he does not need a catapult, he could damage it without, as it will be destroyed at the end of time, when Allah will decide the Resurrection: His House will be demolished, His Word will be raised from Earth so that there will be no more Qurʾān in the books nor in the hearts, He will send a pleasant wind that will take the souls of all the believers and only the wicked will survive; and the Kaʿba will be destroyed by Dhu-Suwayqatayn, as reported by the two ṣaḥīḥ: Abū Hurayra (r) narrated: The Prophet (s) said: Dhu-Suwayqatayn⁵¹ from Al-Ḥabasha (Abyssinia or Ethiopia) will destroy the Kaʿba⁵². Al-Bukhārī reported from Ibn ʿAbbās (r2) that the Prophet (s) said: As if I were looking at him, a black person with thin legs (faḥaj)⁵³ plucking the stones of the Kaʿba one after another⁵⁴,⁵⁵

Thirdly: The construction of the Sultan Murād Khān:

The Sultan Murād Khan was one of the Sultans of the Ottoman Caliphate. His reign extended from 1032 of the Hegira to 1050. The 19th of the month of Shaʿbān 1039 H. a violent rain beat down on Mecca and torrents of water entered the Kaʿba and the Sacred Mosque causing many deaths. The northern wall of the Ka’ba fell down and also parts of the eastern and western walls. The Yemeni wall was hit, weakened and knocked down, as it was collapsing. The ruins of the two other walls (eastern and western) were also knocked down. After this, the great Ka’ba was rebuilt. The reconstruction was completed the second day of the month of Dhul-Hijja 1040 H. This was the very last time the Ka’ba was rebuilt and it is still standing today on these foundations.\textsuperscript{56}

Fourthly: The Shādharwān of the Ka’ba:

Description:

Shādharwān or Shādhirwān is a Persian name\textsuperscript{57}; it designates the leaning stone upon which rely all the walls of the Ka’ba, except the side of the Ḫijr which stands on the threshold of the original House. The Shādharwān was made of a yellow convex stone that tends towards white; it is inlaid with rings of brass used to fix the Kiswa. The stones of the Shādharwān are made of the most precious marble; its height varies between 68 and 77 centimetres and its breadth between 54 and 72 centimetres.\textsuperscript{58}

Reality of the Shādharwān:

The ulama diverged on the reality of the Shādharwān. There are two opinions:

1. According to the majority of the ulama\textsuperscript{59} from the Mālikī, Shāfi‘ī and Ḥanbalī schools, the Shādharwān is a part of the House left by the Quraysh tribe. It is a piece of the original wall of the Ka’ba the Quraysh left because of a lack of ḫalāl money collected to restore the building. It is said that Ibn Zubayr (r2) reduced it from the breadth of the basis of the Ka’ba when he reached the ground where people circumambulate, while restoring the building. It was like a plinth, then it received the round shape it has today, to prevent the people from walking on it.\textsuperscript{60}

\textsuperscript{57} See: al-Majmūʿ by an-Nawawī (463/3).

\textsuperscript{60} See: Tuhfa al-muḥtōj, al-Haythamī (79/4).
2. According to the Ḥanafī School, Ibn Taymiya and late Mālikī and Shāfiʿī scholars61, the Shādharwān is not part of the House but was placed as a pillar for it, a reinforcement of its base against floods and erosion. This is proven by its protuberance from the wall of the Kaʿba and its different shape compared with it. This opinion is prevailing.62

Fifthly: Complete restorations of the Kaʿba (H. 1417, 1996 CE):

With the passing centuries, the Caliphs, Sultans and Emirs hasten to repair any defect appearing on the Kaʿba. In 1996, the Custodian of the two Holy Mosques, King Fahd Ibn ʿAbd al-ʿAzīz (m) ordered the complete restoration of the Honourable Kaʿba: the bases were made stronger, the Shādharwān and its rings were renovated, the outside of its walls were smoothed, the gaps between the stones were bridged and its roof was replaced.63

This was the last complete renovation of the Honourable Kaʿba. We ask Allah his pardon and salvation for all those who glorified the Kaʿba and understood its true value, and all those who worked for its restoration, building and construction over all the ages.
