“The likeness of Jesus before God is as that of Adam: He created him (Adam) from dust, then said to him: ‘Be’, and he was. This is the truth from your Lord, so be not of the disputers.”

Quran 3:59-60

If Jesus is worshipped due to having no father, then surely Adam is more deserving of worship since he was created without either parent.

MIRACLES OF JESUS

Jesus was miraculously conceived with no father and also performed great miracles by the will and permission of God.

He spoke as a baby in the cradle to defend his mother against the people who accused her of fornication. The Quran also states that Jesus gave life to the dead, cured the leper and the blind - all by the will of God.

The fact that Jesus performed miracles does not mean that he was anything more than a humble servant of God. In fact, many Messengers performed miracles, including Noah, Moses and Muhammad (may peace be upon them all) and these miracles only took place by the permission of God, so as to demonstrate the authenticity of the Messenger.

MESSAGE OF JESUS

The Prophets of the Old Testament such as Abraham, Noah and Jonah never preached that God is part of a Trinity, and did not believe in Jesus as their saviour. Their message was simple: there is one God and He alone deserves your worship. It is not logical for God to send Prophets for thousands of years with the same essential message, only to suddenly change it, claim that He is now a part of a trinity, and to stipulate the belief in the divinity of Jesus to be saved.

The truth is, Jesus preached the same message as all the Prophets in the Old Testament. There is a passage in the Bible that really emphasises this core message. A man came to Jesus and asked, “Which is the first commandment of all?” Jesus answered, “The first of all the commandments is, ‘Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one.’” (Mark 12:28-29) So, the greatest commandment, the most important belief according to Jesus, is that God is one. If Jesus was God he would have said, ‘I am God, worship me.’

Instead, he merely repeated a verse from the Old Testament confirming that God is One.

“And when Jesus brought clear proofs, he said: ... Indeed, God - He is my Lord and your Lord. So worship Him alone. This is the only Straight Path.”

Quran 43:64

This aligns with the mission of Jesus, as taught in Islam, where Jesus was sent to the Children of Israel to confirm the message of the past Prophets – to believe in the One True God.

As an honourable obedient Messenger of God, Jesus submitted willingly to God’s commands. As such, he was a “Muslim” – which refers to anyone that submits to the will and commandments of God.

JESUS IN ISLAM

Jesus was as an honourable Prophet sent by God to call to the worship of God alone. This is evident in the Bible and confirmed by the Quran. The Islamic belief about Jesus explains who the real Jesus was, whilst maintaining the pure belief about God and His complete Greatness, Uniqueness and Perfection.

We invite you to look further and investigate Islam. It is not just another religion. It is the same message preached by Noah, Abraham, Moses, Jesus and Muhammad – may peace be upon all of them. Islam means “submission to God” and is a natural and complete way of life that encourages one to give due attention to their relationship with God and His creation. Islam teaches that God is the All-Just and All-Merciful and does not need to sacrifice himself to forgive sins nor is anyone “born into sin”. God judges everyone based on their own deeds and everyone is accountable for their own actions.

Islam teaches us to love and respect all the Prophets of God, but loving and respecting them does not mean worshipping them because worship is due only to God. Acknowledging Jesus as a Prophet of God and becoming a Muslim does not mean changing or losing your Christian identity. It is about going back to the original and pure teachings of Jesus.
Jesus is a figure who is loved and revered by billions of people around the world. In Islam, Jesus is a Prophet, even though the Quran states that he is not the son of Allah and that he is not to be worshiped. In Christianity, Jesus is believed to be the son of God and the Messiah. Islam and Christianity have different beliefs about Jesus, but both religions have teachings about his life and ministry.

Some Christians claim that Jesus is the Son of God. What does this actually mean? Surely God is far removed from human experience. He cannot be approached in the same way that humans approach God. What does it mean for God to have a child? Rather than being taken literally, we find the term “Son of God” symbolically used in the earliest biblical languages for a “righteous person,” and has been used for David, Solomon and others. Jesus, however, is not included in this list.

Jesus is called a Son of God in several places in the Bible, such as in the gospel of Matthew and Luke. In the New Testament, Jesus is referred to as the Son of God, and this is one of the key elements of his identity. However, in Islam, Jesus is not considered to be the son of God, and Allah is the only One worthy of worship.

The Bible states that Jesus is a Prophet. In Matthew 21:10-11, Jesus says, “I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than me.” In John 14:28, Jesus says, “I ascend unto my Father, and my Father, and to my God, and your God.”

In Islam, Jesus is not considered to be the son of God, and Allah is the only One worthy of worship. However, in Christianity, Jesus is believed to be the son of God and the Messiah. Islam and Christianity have different beliefs about Jesus, but both religions have teachings about his life and ministry.

JESUS: THE PROPHET

In Judaism, Jesus (peace be upon him) is viewed as a messiah. This is in stark contrast to Christianity where he is worshipped as a deity, or the son of God. Islam teaches that God is the creator of all things and that he is the only worthy of worship.

According to the Quran, the Angel Gabriel was sent to Mary, the noble virgin, in the form of a man, informing her of a child who was to be born miraculously without a father.

MIRACULOUS BIRTH

According to the Quran, the Angel Gabriel was sent to Mary, the noble virgin, in the form of a man, informing her of a child who was to be born miraculously without a father.

"He ([Angel Gabriel] said, 'I am only a messenger of your Lord to announce to you the gift of a righteous son.' She said, 'How shall I have a son, seeing that no man has touched me, and I am not unchaste?' He said, 'Thus it will be.' Your Lord says, 'It is easy for Me, and We will make a sign to the people and a mercy from Us. And it is a matter already decreed.'"

FATHER & LORD

In the same way, when the word ‘Father’ is used to refer to God it shouldn’t be taken literally. Instead, it’s a way of saying God is the creator, sustainer and supreme master of all. There are many verses for us to understand this symbolic meaning of the word ‘Father’. For example: “One God and Father of all.” (Ephesians 4:6)

Also, Jesus was sometimes called ‘Lord’ by the disciples. This term is used in the original languages of the Bible, for God as well as for people who are held in high esteem. For example, in the Greek New Testament, the term kyrios is used for both ‘Lord’ as well as to name the owner of the vineyard (Matthew 20:8), and the master who beat the disobedient servant (Luke 20:42-47).

In other parts of the Bible, Jesus is even called a ‘servant’ of God by the disciples: “The God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus.” (Acts 3:13) This clearly shows that when ‘Lord’ is used to refer to Jesus, it is a title of respect, not of divinity.

SON OF GOD
